

The Elephant in the Institution

A Bulletin from MUSSC to MUSF

October 22, 2018

Reminder to Complete Important Survey for FANC

This year is another important year for MacEwan University Faculty (MUF) since a new Faculty Association Negotiation Committee (FANC) is being formed for negotiating the terms of the next Collective Agreement. It is crucial to ensure advocacy for MacEwan University Faculty (MUSF) on FANC. Such advocacy is well served by the collection of relevant data.

Be sure to complete the GMUFA Member Survey. It closes on October 24.

As mentioned in the last MUSSC bulletin, this survey is a crucial instrument for collecting data on GMUFA members—data which can be productively employed in the negotiation process this year.

Fair Employment Week

This week is Fair Employment Week, an initiative of the Canadian Association of University Teachers (CAUT). For more information, check out the materials on <http://makeitfair.caut.ca/>.

The GMUFA will be hosting a Fair Employment Week Open House on Wednesday, October 24, from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m., just outside the GMUFA offices in 7-102. Drop by for refreshments and conversations about fair employment practices and the need to promote these practices at MacEwan University as well as other post-secondary institutions across the country.

The GMUFA will also have information tables set up for Fair Employment Week in Building 7 and Building 9 from 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. These tables will be hosted by the GMUFA Board of Directors, so do consider dropping by to meet them and to chat with them about issues germane to fair employment.

Please also check out links on the MUSSC Facebook page and MUSSC Twitter feed for other materials related to fair employment:
